MARCH

TOMAHAWK

The 1961 TOMAHAWK began at 12:01 a.m. on March 16, 1960 and was not completed until midnight on March 15, 1961. The word for the year was "consistency," that is to say—consistency in tardiness. After democratically making all decisions, we did what we wanted to do in the beginning.

The layout has been changed—no doubt about it—but for the best we hope. Deadlines came and went, and so did the hard-working (?) staff members. The task of saving the book from complete and certain destruction fell upon the shoulders of faculty advisor Paul V. Peterson; art advisor Jane Andersen; photographer George Ragan; and business manager of student publications Bob Barnes.

If you have any complaints regarding inability to find clubs and activities, false identifications or incorrect English, the blame rests solely on us—your TOMAHAWK staff. Our only excuse is that in the evenings and on weekends while the rest of the student body was on vacation, we bemoaned our fate; and in minutes of revenge, we deliberately made mistakes and gained some joy out of this life.

the GATEWAY

What week would be complete without the stacks of The Gateway on Friday? Edited fall semester by Linda Strnad, The Gateway received a plaque from the Omaha Advertising Club. The plaque was presented in honor of the Gateway's winning the United Community Service College Coverage contest. Once again student opinion was aired on such topics as Panhellenic rules and national elections. Current items such as the sandbagging of the flood-endangered campus also received wide attention.

Dominating the spring's news scene were the meetings of the President's Activities Study Committee—and the Gateway told the story. Through increased use of pictures, depth reporting and editorial comment, the second semester staff, directed by Editor-In-Chief Ken Zimmerman, attempted to bring into sharp focus these and other issues of campus interest such as the tri-mester plan, traffic problems and even girls PE classes. High enrollment figures challenged the Gateway to give more detailed information on campus activities to the student. The challenge was met, and the student informed.

Bells are

Ringling

The combined efforts of over 100 people, including cast, crew, orchestra, directors and workers, resulted in the successful presentation of "Bells Are Ringing" by Jule Styne, Betty Comden and Adolph Green on March 24, 25, and 26.

The show features the antics of Ella Peterson, played by Sue Ewing; who is a "good Samaritan" for the customers of Susanswerphone and who falls in love with the voice of playboy-playwright Jeff Moss, played by Roger Mahnke.

Ella's warm heartedness thoroughly upsets Sue, the owner of the answering service, played by Sally Jo Scott, who thinks Ella gets too personal. Sue falls for a notorious bookie, Sandor, played by Louis Inserra, who uses Susanswerphone as headquarters for a bookie ring. Dave Selner and Don Hannum as Dr. Kitchell and Blake Barton, also turned in outstanding performances in the production.

ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY

Initiated as "tigers," the members of this fraternal organization for junior and senior advanced AF-ROTC cadets sponsor and elect Angels Flight, hold numerous social events, and further the mission, tradition and concept of the United States Air Force. Robert Everett led the Arnold Air Society as Commander.

ANGELS

Angel officers are: Joyce Stolley, Dione Barker, Gwen Sondvall, Morilyn Bowley, Morilyn Brunell, and Carol Sue Childs. Not pictured is Mary Roberts Moder.

Angels Flight is an honorary auxiliary of the Arnold Air Society members, the girls attend weekly meetings and participate in marching performances and Angelaires. At Christmas, they joined with the AAS in giving a "Toys for Tots" dance for the entire student body. Other Angel activities include office work in the cadet office, tours and brunches at Offutt. At weekly meetings they view instructional films and listen to guest speakers.

ORCHESIS

The annual spring concert is the highlight of the year for Orchesis members. Awards presented at the concert gave recognition to Marilyn Bowley and Carolyn Floerchinger as outstanding members. The program concluded with the traditional Lord's Prayer. Orchesis also sponsors one day dance clinics for junior and senior high school students that are interested in modern dance. The officers of the group are Kathie Carsey, Linda Jelen, and Ginny Anderson; Linda Edelen is sponsor.

YWCA

The YWCA is an organization which stresses social, spiritual, and intellectual ideals in everyday living. Since it was organized on OU's campus in 1958, the group has been active in many service projects. At Christmas the group presented the Creche Children's Home with a Mitten Tree. They also hold holiday worship services as well as frequent social functions.

WRA

WRA encourages interest and participation in women's intramurals and athletics. The group also sponsors Sports and High School Play Days in which girls participate in all forms of sports. WRA's service project is collecting food and clothing for needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

INTRAMURALS

The Intramural sports program on OU's campus creates much interest among students. Any organization is eligible to participate in the program.

There are a wide variety of activities. For the men there is touch football, volleyball, basketball, softball, and track. Women's sports include the same except for touch football. In addition to the team sports there are individual sports such as badminton, table tennis, archery, tennis, and golf. Trophies are awarded to the teams placing in the individual and team sports.

Long after audiences have forgotten the enjoyment of the season's plays and musicals, members of University Players remember the hours of rehearsals, difficulties with makeup, and encouraging words that went into each production. University Players include not only actors and actresses, but also those who wait in the wings contributing of their hidden talents. Audience applause is but a small part of the reward gained from participation in University Theatre productions.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

HONORS CONVOCATION

Highlighting the Honors Convocation, April 22, was the announcement of Susan Worman as winner of the $250 Philip Sher Essay Award. Sue's topic was "Racial and Religious Mutual Respect" on campus.

The convocation honored 182 outstanding students of the past two semesters and the summer session. Students with a 3.5 grade average for one or more semesters were named to the Dean's List.

Also recognized were the members of Alpha Lambda Delta and Corinthians. Alpha Lambda Delta, national freshmen women's honorary, works to promote high scholarship among women. Membership is restricted to students obtaining a 3.5 grade average. The members sponsor a tea for prospective members, and usher for University functions.

The Corinthian Society was founded by Ralph M. Wardle in 1948. Named for the Corinthian columns at the entrance of the University, membership is restricted to juniors and seniors with a 3.5 accumulative grade average.

MAIE-DAY

"Rain, rain go away" might well have been the thought of hundreds of students Ma-ie Day. For nearly two months, float chairman from organized campus groups slaved with their committees on float building and float hoping, only to see the brightly colored vehicles fade and pieces of crepe paper blow away to leave many unrecognizable floats in many instances.

The drizzle and wind forced the traditional pancake breakfast into the Fieldhouse, but the parade continued—minus four floats.

Student Council President Lee Perkins introduced the Ma-ie Day Princess and her attendants. Retiring Dean of Students Jay B. MacGregor presented Princess Attira XXVI, Sonja Ruckl of Chi Omega sorority, with a bouquet of red roses and a kiss.

Sonja's attendants from the all-school election for Ma-ie Day Princess were: Lois Chase of Alpha Xi Delta, Janice Snowdall of Sigma Kappa and Carolyn Carver of Zeta Tau Alpha.

The parade wound its way through downtown Omaha where the floats were judged on the basis of theme, workmanship and conduct. The theme for the parade was "A Young Man's Fancy."

Alpha Xi Delta took first place in the float division with its entry "Strikes His Fancy." Chi Omega came in second with "Girl of His Dreams" and Zeta Tau Alpha, third with "Easy Livin'."

First place in the car division went to Lou Gorr for his miniature model.

TRACK

The track team, after a disappointing drought of lettermen, could muster only one win out of five tournies. The rugged schedule saw the warriors on the warpath against Dana College; however, the thinclads fell victim to South Dakota University, Wayne State Teacher's College, Washburn University, and the University of Wichita.

The fleetfooted Indians pinned down a well-earned fourth in the tough South Dakota Invitational Meet and also won the Simpson Triangular Meet during the Indoor season.

GOLF

Coach Bob Anthes' veteran divotmen sank the third position in the CIC this year although they entered the year as defending champs. The season, though somewhat disappointing, was tight, with the only losses being to the ace University of Nebraska foursome and the team from Washburn.

Led by Bob Julich's 297 strokes, the swingers finished seventh in the NAIA National Golf tournament at Bemidji, Minnesota. Julich went on to capture tenth place on strokes.

Anderson and Schlotzhauer rest between sets.

Some people say that tennis is merely bouncing a little wool ball back and forth over a net. If this is true then these boys know how to bounce that little ball. By the appearance of our tennis team, bouncing is not the only part of the game. Headed by Coach Clarence "Sonny" Means, the OU net-men pounded their way to first-place doubles and singles crowns to earn a coveted second-place in the CIC.

Russ Schlotzhauer, singles champ, doubled up with team-mate Donelson to grab the doubles laurels. At Kansas City, Missouri, where the NAIA championships were held, Donelson climbed to the third round of singles play while Schlotzhauer was forced out of play in the second round.

The batmen of Omaha University were undisputedly the heroes of the athletic season this year. Coach Virg Yelkin, in his thirteenth year as Baseball tutor led his boys to the NAIA Championships for the second straight year. The all-season tally for the Indian baseballers was 15 wins and only three losses.

The squad was dominated by rookies with a few veterans such as Lettermen Jack Vaccaro and Larry Kozeny. They successfully defended titles in the CIC and the Kansas-Missouri League in posting their superior marks. The stickmen went on to grab the Area two championship and posted an honor with Vaccaro and Kozeny being named to the NAIA all-tournament team at the championships in Sioux City, Iowa. This was Kozeny's second year on the squad.

Coaches Bob Mackie and Virgil Yelkin.

SUMMER THEATRE WORKSHOP

An inspired company of players in the University of Omaha Summer Theatre Workshop poured every effort into Tennessee Williams SUMMER AND SMOKE which opened on July 7, 8 and 9. It describes an emotional change that overwhelms a lonely spinster (Cherie Shaver) in the dreary town of Glorious Hill, Mississippi.

Supporting characters that substantially aided the production were: Annette Koswosky, in the role of the demented mother; Ralph Ellsworth, a sniveling suitor to Alma; Donald Gappa, Mrs. Shaver's father; Doris Lewis, a gossip, and Tom Hicks, an elderly doctor.

Dr. Edwin L. Clark directed this opening play of the summer series.

MY HEART'S IN THE HIGHLANDS by William Soroyan represented the third and final play of the Summer Theatre Workshop on August 4, 5, and 6.

A whimsical work, it scans the indigent household of a California poet (Rod Ross), which is largely supported by the fine begging instincts of his son (Charley Gifford) because pappa's poems aren't selling particularly well that year. Barbara Boyer, as Johnny's whimsical grandmother proved to be particularly appealing.

Dr. Edwin L. Clark directed.

The Summer Theatre Workshop maintained its standard of excellence in a well-drilled and comprehensive performance of Shaw's CANDIDA on July 21, 22 and 23. It is an ingenious expression of the hypothesis that while men make war and the greatest fuss, women truly make the world go 'round.

The entire one act comedy is consumed in the proof that, as the men (Neil Shaver as Rev. James Morrel, and Robert Simpson as Marchbanks), argue, rant and are in turn distressed; the wife Candida (Carol Robinson) recognizes acutely her relationship to both men; a friend to the younger, a protector to the older.

The supporting cast of Dave Selner, Ann Ahlstrand, and Joe McCartney supplied an amusing human background, under the direction of Curtis Siemers, a newcomer to the university.

BOOTSTRAPPERS

The "Operation Bootstrap" program was started several years ago by the Air Force to allow career service men and women to take temporary leave to "lift themselves by the bootstraps" through a college degree. The Army and Marines have since joined under the "final semester program." Bootstrappers are especially attracted to Omaha University because of its liberal allowance of academic credit for military training and its Bachelor of General Education Degree. The BGE degree draws "bootstrappers" because the military personnel students are not required to have credits in mathematics, economics or a foreign language. Another reason is that the degree can lead to a second career in teaching after retirement from service. Service men and women (other than marines and nurses) attend Omaha U. for six months, taking one full semester of courses plus a special six weeks of accelerated courses designed for bootstrappers. Marines and nurses attend for nine months or two full semesters. The marine earns a Bachelor of Science in Military Science, and the nurse receives a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. These bootstrappers receive their military pay while attending school, but pay their own tuition.

The Bachelor of General Education Degree that so many of the bootstrappers receive upon graduation is earned in the following manner:

- An airman is given 12 hours academic credit for his basic training.
- An officer is given 30 hours credit for his commission. (Most bootstrappers at O.U. are officers.)
- All personnel are limited to 65 hours credit for military science (military experience, service schools and service extension courses.)
- The personnel must have earned their other credits at an accredited university or college. (Some have attended as many as seven universities before finishing at Omaha U.) No grade below C is accepted.

Roy W. Nolte, supervisor of the program at Omaha U. and pictured on the preceding page with Capt. Jack Fisher, has estimated that more than eight hundred Bootstrappers have earned degrees since 1953. Though they are on the campus for only six months, they participate in most activities. There were two bootstrappers in a recent dramatics production, and a team of bootstrappers won the intramural golf championship last spring. Although they rarely wear their uniforms on campus, they are easily distinguished from the younger undergraduates. Bootstrappers are usually integrated into University classes, but some classes have been created especially for them. In classroom discussion, the service personnel can offer "I was there" views on such a large variety of subjects that their contribution to the broadening of educational experiences at O.U. is unquestionable. It was largely through the requests of the bootstrappers that a mid-year commencement was held this year. Pictured at the right are only a few of the many who came to O.U. under this program. Lieut. Col. Roland H. Brady, a pilot from Ent AFB at Colorado Springs, Colorado displays the ankle he broke in a trampoline accident. Also on the right, Maj. Jane Ditchfield tries on the mortar board she was to wear for her graduation in January. Shown with her are bootstrappers (from left) Captains Mary Theodoroff, Mary Carlson, Mary Furn and Margaret Barelle.

THE SOCIETY OF PEN AND SWORD

The Society of the Pen and Sword was established to promote friendship and scholastic achievement among the members of the Armed Forces attending the University and to maintain understanding and good will between the "Bootstrappers," faculty and students. Pictured here are the officers and members for first and second semester.

AUGUST

WITH O.U.'S PRESIDENT . . .

Certainly synonymous with Omaha University is the name of President Milo Bail. And 1960-61 was no exception. Under the dynamic leadership of Dr. Bail, the University noted another year of advancement in education for the citizens of Omaha, with an ever-increasing opportunity learning readily available. It would be impossible to note here all the decisions that Dr. Bail has made which pointed to this end, but suffice to say no man has ever devoted more time and energy to the University than has our prexy. To all Omahans, Dr. Bail is Omaha U.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS

Eight men and one woman from all walks of life comprise the University Board of Regents. They are the policy making board that assists the President in naming faculty appointments, deciding on new courses of instruction and in setting budget recommendations. Holding terms of four years, Regents are elected by the Omaha School Board. Officers for 1960-61 are F. E. Borchers, president, Ralph Kiplinger, vice-president, and Mrs. John Merriam, secretary.

FROSH GLIMPSES

Donald Woods. Dean of the College of Adult Education

More than 4,000 adults of all ages attend the University of Omaha even though they may hold fulltime jobs. These adults continue to work on a college degree, or satisfy other educational or cultural pursuits in the more than 200 courses offered through the College of Adult Education.

Credit toward any degree offered by the University may be obtained through the College of Adult Education. In addition, thousands of adults participate in new educational experiences through the many courses, discussion groups, and conferences offered in a wide variety of important fields of interest.

The College of Adult Education provides counseling service for adult students without charge in order to provide maximum assistance to them.

COLLEGE OF ADULT EDUCATION

The library is a helpful place for CAE students.

CAE students have opportunities to hear visiting speakers.

Graduate students are given aid in planning for their degree.

Through institutes graduate students gain knowledge.

T.V. Classroom gives those at home a chance for a college education.

The university Graduate Division provides opportunity for advanced study and independent investigation in several fields. Two advanced degrees, Master of Arts and Master of Science in Education, are offered.

Graduate study in psychology, education, sociology, English, history and government usually leads to the degree Master of Arts. The Master of Science in Education degree is usually earned by master teachers, supervisors, principals or other administrators.

"THE ANSWER TO FRIDAY NIGHTS"

The University Nights participants are treated to refreshments.

There is opportunity for cultural enjoyment.

Dr. Thomas Bonner is a speaker.

The College of Adult Education presented the "University Nights" series on Friday Evenings from September through December in the Conference Center Auditorium. The programs included a panel on fine arts consisting of Dr. Edwin Clark, drama; Joseph Levine, music; and Eugene Kingman, art; "Monsieur Vincent," a film based on the life of St. Vincent de Paul. Dr. Thomas Bonner spoke on "The American Character," and Victor P. Hass, Omaha's book reviewer, discussed contemporary writing and the American novel of the mid-century. Lt. Gen. Francis H. Griswold, vice commander-in-chief of the Strategic Air Command, discussed military strategy in America. "Hypnosis in Modern Medicine" was presented by Dr. Willis H. Taylor, Jr., and Dr. William Jaynes presented a jazz review. The University Nights patrons also attended the fall dramatic production at the university. An interpretation of the ballet was made by Joseph Levine, conductor of the Omaha Symphony; and at one of the final programs the University choir presented a Christmas concert.

THE WORLD AFFAIRS INSTITUTE

The fifteenth annual World Affairs Institute was held at Omaha University this year, under the direction of William Utley, instructor of political science. The central theme of this year's program was "The West at Bay."

Speakers that appeared on subsequent Wednesday evenings included Musa Amalemba, the first and only native African in the infant government of Kenya; Dr. George Blanksten, professor of political science at Northwestern University; Max Lerner, journalist and world traveler; Allan Merriam, associate professor of anthropology at Northwestern University and a former resident of the Congo; Col. James H. S. Rasmussen, US Air Force; and Douglas Cater, Washington editor of The Reporter Magazine.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross-country is a sport of effort, hard work, and will power. To run upwards of five miles every night for several weeks requires a great deal of stamina, but obviously the men on the Omaha University cross-country team have all these prerequisites to make the squad.

The harriers, tutored by Coach Ernie Gorr, tied down three wins and four losses, plus a few places in the multiple meets. Denny Dunning was high point man for the squad with Gene Somer picking up the next highest amount of points. Other members of the team were Nick Dixon, Terry Maides, Bob Jueckstock, Jesse Henderson, Steve Gidley, and Bob Gregg. Lettermen were Dunning, Somer, Gregg, Dixon and Jueckstock.

After fifteen years as track coach and four years as Cross Country mentor, Coach Ernie Gorr is retiring as track coach. More commonly known as "Hey, Coach!", Coach Gorr will concentrate on his classroom studies and other obligations at the University. As two-term president of the Midwestern AAU, Gorr conceived the idea of the NAIA Cross Country Championships and Omaha U's hostship of the annual event.

"Giddap!"

NAIA

This fall, two days after Thanksgiving, Omaha University was host to the Fifth Annual NAIA Cross-Country Championships at Elmwood Park. This was Omaha's fifth hostship of the national event. The NAIA National meet attracted runners from states such as Vermont, Florida, California, Texas, and a host of others.

Close to one hundred athletes participated in the event and most of them finished the four-mile foray, with Denny Dunning of OU finishing in the 64th position.

Joe Thomas of Southern Illinois University won the meet in a record time of 20 minutes and 39 seconds giving his team low total for the team championship. Omaha University did not have a full team entered.

A mild day and partly cloudy skies contributed to many great performances. President Milo Bail of the University gave an award luncheon in the Student Union afterward.

CUTEST PAN-UGLIEST MAN

Mary Ellen Gundry — Lyle McFarlin

Mary Ellen Gundry of Zeta Tau Alpha and Lyle "Buddha" McFarlin of Lambda Chi Alpha were named Cutest Pan and Ugliest Man at a penny a vote.

Each year OU's Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, sponsors the contest. Voting is done by money contributions with the proceeds going to the local United Community Service campaign drive.

The winners collected $282.98 and $153.97 respectively. The total amount collected was $865.52.

Two of the organizations supported by USC funds are the Omaha Opportunity Center and Immanuel Old Peoples Home.

BLOOD DRIVE

Members of Alpha Phi Omega, a service organization, help with school projects. Included in these projects is the annual "Cutest Pan and Ugliest Man" contest. At right is Bruce Hatfield, one of many students who participated in the campus blood drive. Plaques were awarded to the groups providing the most donors. Theta Chi fraternity placed first in donations.

INTER-PEP

Promotion of school spirit is Inter-Pep Council's main objective. The Council consists of representatives from 15 organizations on campus.

This year major projects included a migration to Washburn U. and a red arrow featuring athletic events in the OUampi Room. They also sponsored pep rallies, cheerleading tryouts, programs and halftime ceremonies.

Pam Stronberg was chairman, Margie Dohse vice chairman and Georgia Clark, secretary-treasurer.

Before a large Homecoming crowd, the Indians were not to be outdone by the elaborate ceremonies that had taken place the night before. From the opening kick-off the Indians churned up yard after yard of turf while holding the Emporia State Hornets in checkmate.

OU 7 - - - - - EMPORIA 0

Using the power of fullbacks Barry Miler and Wayne Backes, the speed of halfbacks Roger Sayers, Lou Miloni, and Mike Conway, and the passing of quarterback Dave Gibson, the tribe downed the Hornets 7-0.

OU 13 - - - - - ST. BENEDICT'S 33

At St. Benedict's, the Indians met one of the strong powers of the CIC. After three quarters of hard-nosed football, the weight and the experience of the Ravens started to show its effects on the tribe. Trailing by one touchdown going into the final period, the smaller Indians weakened as the hefty Ravens scored twice more. The final score was Omaha University 13 and St. Benedict's 33.

OU 0 ----- WASHBURN 7

The Ichabods of Washburn dealt the Indians a fatal blow at Topeka. Moving the ball well the Indians were again hampered by fumbles. Time after time the Indians saw their chance for victory lost as the ball jumped out of the hands of the fleet backs. The final score was Omaha University 0, Washburn 7.

OU 14 - - - - - PITTSBURG 32

In the season finale, the Indians hosted the Pittsburgh State Gorillas. Probably the best in the CIC, the "Apes" completely dominated the first half of the ball game. However, when the second half got under way, it looked like a new tribe of Omaha University Indians had hit the field. Trailing 19-0, the Indians came alive with Wayne Backes, George Payne, and Gary Sindelar leading the assault. The final score was Omaha University 7 and Pittsburgh State 32.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council Oath

Upon my election to the student council, I realize that I have accepted obligations to, and responsibilities toward, the University of Omaha. I solemnly promise to act as a representative of the student body and to serve to benefit it at all times. I solemnly swear to conduct myself in a manner that will always be a credit to the student body and to the University. Furthermore, I promise to work for the University and seek to advance her name and reputation in whatever way I am able. By the signing of this oath, I willingly become a member of the Student Council of the University of Omaha.

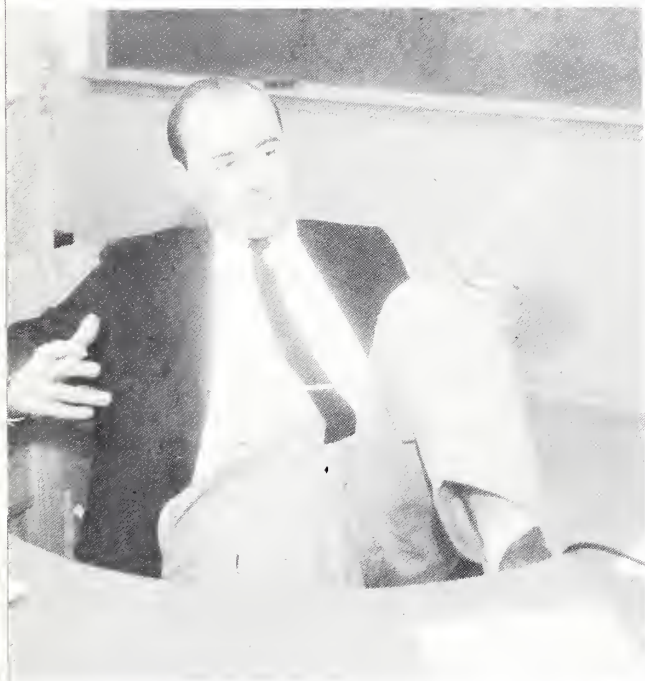

Council officers for 1960-61 are: Terry Olsen, vice-president; Karolee Wybenga, secretary; Lyle Franzen, president; and John Hofschire, treasurer.

The University Theatre opened its fall season with Paul Osborn's dramatic comedy "Point of No Return."

This adaptation from John Marquand's satirical book on human nature and social codes in America is concerned with a young financier, played by Charles Cogan, who directs his life to "success" after he and his wife, portrayed by Merle Reiff, briefly imagine failure.

Vija Briedis plays the town's rich girl and the hero's first love who is emotionally tied to her unyielding snob of a father, Ted MacKechnie.

Jimmie Painter plays the role of the financier's money-and-prestige-hungry father while Wave Selner is an observant, talkative social anthropologist who comes to make a study.

The University Theatre production was directed by Dr. Edwin L. Clark.

The College of Business Administration provides young men and women with a variety of study areas for professional specialization.

Students may specialize in accounting, insurance, marketing, personal management, retailing, real estate, secretarial science, industrial management, finance or general business. After completion of the four-year program they receive either the degree Bachelor of Science in Business Administration or Retailing.

The College of Business Administration cooperates with the College of Education in offering curricula preparing students to teach business, commercial and distributive education subjects in high school.

Two-year programs in accounting, secretarial training, or retailing lead to associate title.

The International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi was founded on Nov. 7, 1909, at New York University, School of Commerce. Gamma Eta Chapter here at the University of Omaha was founded on April 23, 1949, in the College of Business Administration.

Delta Sigma Pi is limited to those persons registered in the College of Business Administration. It is not a social fraternity, but is strictly a professional organization. Being in the business field, it has as some of its members many very important men from the business world, including: Robert Andersen, former Secretary of the Treasury.

The central office for Delta Sig. is located at Miami University, in Oxford, Ohio. The Grand Council, high body of the fraternity, holds a Congress every two years, and this year it will be held at Ashville, North Carolina. At this Congress policies and fraternity actions are considered and brought to be part of fraternity rules and regulations.

DELTA SIGMA PI

Four officers presided over the fall semester, but were retired because of graduation or promotion. John Wayne as president, Elden Head as chancellor, Jim Allen as Jr. vice president, and Fred Stamp as historian. Second semester officers include Jim Allen as president, Keith Holman as Sr. vice president, and Robert Panek as the new Jr. vice president. Lee Courtright presides as Chancellor, Ray Christensen is treasurer, Don Buffin as secretary, and Robert Pettegrew records history as historian. The University choir was directed this year by Melvin Olson. The choir provided music for many community organizations as well as for the university. They presented an evening's entertainment for the "University Nights" at Christmas. Convocations for the students, graduation exercises, and the St. John's Passion kept the group busy throughout the year.

The University orchestra, directed by James B. Peterson, made many important contributions to the University, and the community. In addition to annual concerts, the orchestra provided music for the musical "The Boy Friend" in March.

INDEPENDENT STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

Pictures speak for themselves, and just a glance across the page will prove that the members of the Independent Students Association had a most eventful year. Under the guidance of president Ken Petersen, independents participated in activities ranging from "necking" and poster parties, to "helping Santa Claus." Members worked hard on their Sweetheart Dance which honored twin sweethearts Bernadine and Geraldine Lund.

Active participation brings rich rewards, as shown by the close friendships, successful parties, and continual satisfaction in a job well done.

COLLEGE OF APPLIED ARTS

A practical approach to education is offered by the College of Applied Arts. Here students find the techniques and methods designed to help them earn a living in professional and semi-professional vocations.

This college, with its six departments, offers students the Bachelor of Science degree, with majors in engineering, business administration, home economics, journalism, medical technology, military science, and nursing. Several two-year programs lead to associate titles.

This versatile College inaugurates new courses and adopts them to the students needs and developments of the community. After a broad introduction to general education, students have an opportunity to specialize and prepare for their chosen career.

Guest speakers on job opportunities, such as fashions and hair styling, an annual Continental smorgasbord and several teas, marked another busy year for the Home Economics club.

Most active of all campus organizations is without a doubt the Press Club. Dreaded deadlines, bloodbaths and other questionable activities completed the year.

The student branch of the national organization of Radio Engineers sought to advance interest in electronics as applied to other branches of science. Highlighting the year's activities was a joint meeting with the Lincoln and Omaha chapters of the group.

JANUARY

. . . . . and we still can't forget

JANUARY GRADUATION

Bootstrappers stole the show at the mid-year commencement exercises January 28. Of the 322 degrees conferred, nearly two-thirds went to the career military personnel. It was the first winter graduation ceremony since the years immediately following World War II.

Graduated "cum Laude" were Mrs. Mary Muehlig, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and Harry E. Mikkleson, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. Mrs. Susan Fargher was graduated "with distinction in speech." She earned her bachelor's degree of secondary education in three years.

Dr. Vance Rogers, president of Nebraska Wesleyan University, issued a warning against mediocrity, citing the "new scientific and technological era we are now entering" in his commencement address.

BASKETBALL

Coach Clarence (Sonny) Means, led his rookie dominated basketball team into a twenty-two game season and came out on the bottom.

Although the averages piled up against the squad they rallied several times to take considerable leads over their opponents, only to come out as the underdog.

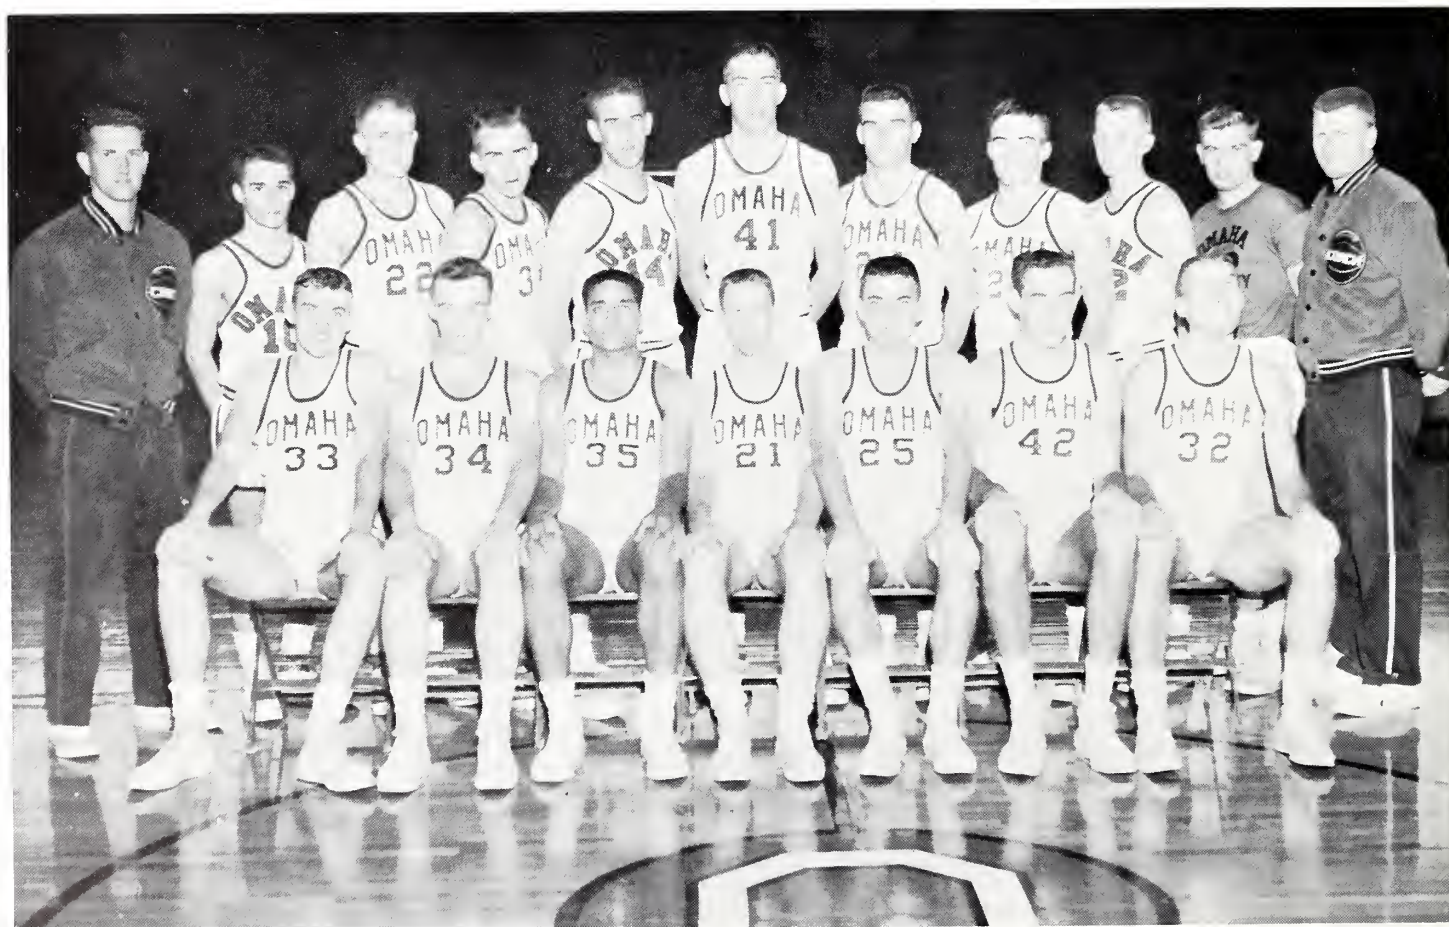

After a fourteen game losing streak, the Indian basketball players gathered all courage and walloped Hastings College in the last few minutes of the game. It was plays like this that earned the boys a title of "dauntless."

Led by three lettermen, Coach Means' team ran through their daily drills with the greatest of ease, but when it came time to face an opposing team, the lack of experience proved to be the squad's undoing. Hunter, Neuberger, and Wentworth, the three "big guns" of the season combined their talents with freshman Wendell Wicksell and proved to be a formidable group. But paired with teams of much greater height and experience the four were just overshadowed although they played skillfully.

Wendell Wiksell, the sharp-shooting freshman from South High School, was high-scorer for the season with an eighteen point-per-game average.

Larry Dostal, another freshman, proved his skill in the St. Benedict's game by dumping the ball in the basket for a total of fifteen points.

OU appears to be slightly outreached.

Lettermen Gary Wentworth, Joe Neuberger, Bruce Hunter

Returning lettermen were few, but the three that bolstered the team, Gary Wentworth, Joe Neuberger, and Bruce Hunter, proved to be an invaluable source of skill and experience to the basketmen.

WRESTLING

Head Wrestling Coach Russ Gorman's grapplers ended the season with five wins, five losses and one tie. This record includes a win in a quadrangular meet with Graceland College, Northwest Missouri, and North Dakota State University.

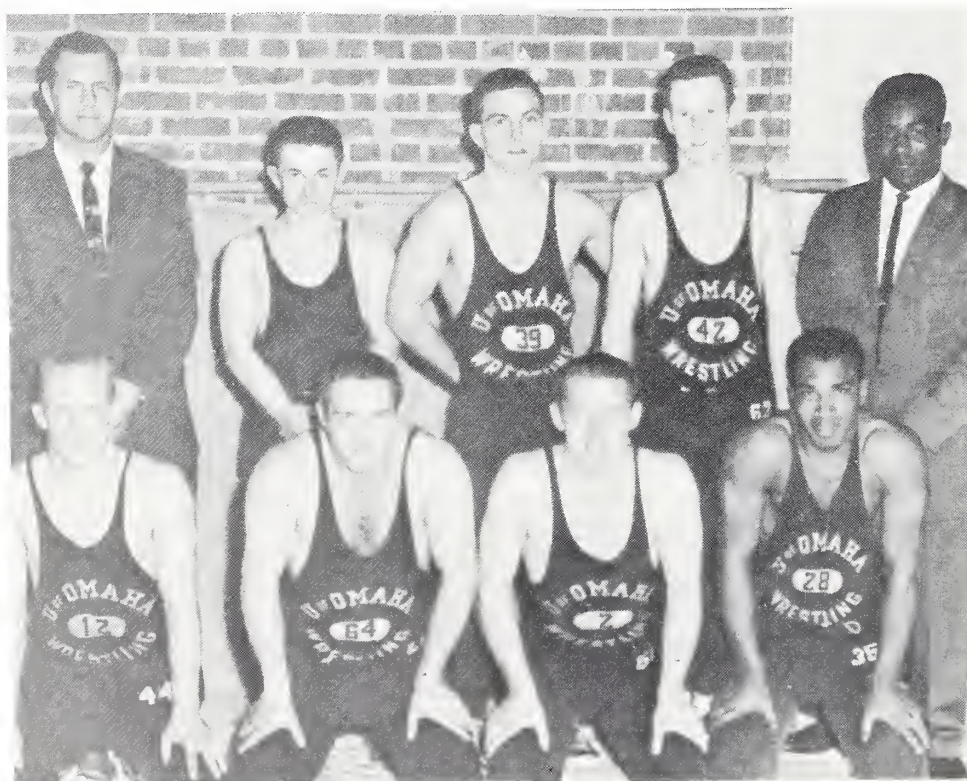

The team was strong in almost all of the weight classifications with Arch Ferguson being named as the most improved wrestler; Ferguson is a heavyweight.

Also shining during the season were Louis Miloni, who was high man with a 7-0-0 record, Bob Tallman with an 8-1-1 record, and George Crenshaw with an 8-3-0 record.

The outstanding freshman wrestler was Wayne Backus; the coveted "Outstanding Wrestler Award" was presented to Bob Tallman. Elected as Co-captains for next year's team were Jim Howard and Louis Miloni.

Dr. Frank H. Gorman, Dean of the College of Education

If teaching interests a student, he will find a variety of approaches at the University of Omaha.

A highly specialized program offers students the Bachelor of Science degree in Education, with concentration in kindergarten-primary, intermediate, secondary, industrial arts, library science, nursing, physical education or special education. At the same time students may complete requirements for the initial Professional Elementary or Secondary School Certificate, in Nebraska and many other states.

Especially valuable is the student teaching program in the Omaha and suburban public schools. Here students get the "feel" of teaching and receive priceless practical experience.

Students receive highly specialized preparation for the profession from an excellent staff.

Looking back over our past year, each of us comes to realize more and more why Alpha Xi Delta symbolized so much to us. Established on the Omaha University campus 10 years ago, Gamma Delta Chapter has continually received honor and recognition from its outstanding members. In the fall, we started off with a song as we captured the Sig Ep. Sing trophy again. Another repeat performance was in store for us at the Theta Chi Ox Olympics. Peppy, pretty cheerleader Tiny McMichael was selected Tomahawk Beauty Queen. Kathy Faulk received first runner-up; while Sandie Bergstadt placed in the top five. The spring semester saw the "Xi" sing their way to another first-place trophy at the All-School Sing, and go on to capture first place in the MA-IE Day contest. These activities and many more symbolize the spirit and sisterhood of Alpha Xi Delta, established on April 17, 1893, by 10 young women at Laobard College, Galesburg, Illinois.

Alpha Xi gets in the act.

Zeta Tau Alpha was founded at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia, on October 15, 1898, by a small group of nine friends. Today ZTA is an international organization with 35,250 members in all corners of the globe. Zeta claims 90 college chapters and 202 alumnae chapters. Gamma Mu chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha came to the University of Omaha in 1950, when Sigma Chi Omicron, the first local sorority on campus, went national.

It is Zeta's aim to select for membership those girls who will join in realizing the object of "the intensifying of friendship, the fostering of a spirit of love, . . . the performing of such deeds . . . as will conduce to the building up of a purer and nobler womanhood."

"To work earnestly, to act sincerely, to speak kindly . . . . ." These inspiring words from Chi Omega's Symphony helped to lead Zeta Delta Chapter through another honor-filled year at the University of Omaha.

Chi Omega's Judy Flint, Sheilah Dunklau, Sue Weidenhammer, Delores Brewer and Judy Moe served on Student Council. Jackie Palmer, Ann Pence and Carol Robinson filled the posts of secretary of the freshman, junior, and senior classes, respectively.

Homecoming, the biggest all-school social event of the fall semester, had Chi Omega with the princess for the fifth straight year. The 1960 winner was Bobbi Garvin. For the 22nd straight semester, Chi Omega topped all woman's sororities in scholarship.

There was fun, too, following the fabulous trip for seven girls to The Greenbrier at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. for Chi Omega's biennial convention. The fraternity exchanges, pledge-active parties, date parties, holiday fun party and finally the annual Christmas dinner dance at the Blackstone Hotel.

Wonder what they are smiling at?

With a pledge class of 24 beauties and brains, Sigma Kappa began the 1960-61 school year. Sigma Kappa President Carol Sue Child welcomed the girls by offering pledges, as did our founders, "sincere friendships, loyalty, and loving helpfulness within our bond of continuing sisterhood." Pledge trainer Donna Pullen taught them the tradition of which all Sigma Kappas are very proud. Sigma Kappa was founded at Colby College, Maine, Nov. 9, 1874 by five courageous women. They chose the violet as our flower, the pearl as our jewel, and the triangle as our symbol. Beta Omega, founded at OU in 1950, had fun-filled days at the dinner dance and the Violet Formal where Gary Hurley, Theta Chi, was elected Typical Frat Man. Donna Pullen was chosen Theta Chi Dream Girl, and pledges jumped for joy at their Sigma Kapers dance when Jerry Gilmore, Pike, was elected Mr. Pledge.

Theta Chi's Guys were all over everything this year; from coast to coast; from athletic field to dance floor; from card table to card table to card table . . . . As usual the Sweater Dance started out the social season, and Julie Klingforth was voted the honor to reign as sweetest in a sweater with a nimble assist from Mike Richardson and the perennial garter. The OX-men soon heard the mating call and were off for a merry chase through sorority-land, led by a herd of schmoos and shepherd Lich.

Gary Hurley broke into the Campus' Who's Who as Sigma Kappa's Typical Fraternity Man; not at all unlike his usual 'typical' self. Close behind followed brother Hill bearing fond memories and the title of Knight of Chi Omega. Bob Wittekind bore THETA CHI'S standard into Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary; and Larry Schmidt watched over the Greek masses as president of the Interfraternity Council.

Sports took an upswing from perpetual second-place standings last year to consistent first-place ratings this time around the Interfraternity league. Yes, just about everything from basketball to wrestling to bowling and back again; not to mention the pledges well deserved loss in the Pledge-Active football game.

Since Lambda Chi first received its charter in 1954 it has had its growing pains, disappointments, and triumphs until rising to a position of significance as a fraternity and now even further boosting that position. We pause to take one backward glance at the past year. The first thing we recall is the stimulating and educational experience which was afforded us when some fifty Lambda Chis gathered at O.U. for their Great Plains Conclave. Our voice was maintained in campus affairs when Hofschire repeated and Mencke was elected to Council. Gaffney and Harris represented us on the IFC. "Naught without labor" took on new significance as we prepared our float for MA-IE Day. Disappointment at the All-School Sing in May was kept in mind as we prepared to win the All-Greek Sing in September. The tradition of Ugly men was maintained during the Ugly Man Contest in October when McFarlin became our fifth consecutive ugly man. A surprise awaited the Greeks at the OX Olympics as a combination of manpower, Chariot, and Frank Tapy brought home the trophy. To reminisce is oft times rewarding, but as always we work and happily anticipate the promise of the future.

Spirit and brotherhood! Keys to the success of Pi Kappa Alpha on our campus. Last spring we started the ball rolling by winning the All-School Sing while five of the brothers were tapped into ODK. Pi K A closed its spring activities with the "Blow Out" at Lake Platteview. Roast chicken, drink, and the ever-present "bird-doggin" highlighted the occasion. Rushweek was a delightful experience for Pi K netting 30 fine men into the fraternity. None of the brothers will forget the Garnet and Gold Ball, the only strictly formal Greek dance. The gala occasion, which was held in November, was highlighted by the selection of Jeannie Kutilek as our 1960 Dream Girl. Not only was Pi Kappa Alpha first on the campus in scholarship for the third straight year, but the brothers also obtained varsity letters in five sports and provided fierce competition on the intramural field. Thus ended another year that many times saw our men in the friendship circle singing "It was down in Old Virginny . . ."

Greek Week saw the Sig. Eps take a multitude of trophies, including the much coveted Intramural Sweepstakes Award. On Maie Day we made a float. Brothers tapped for O.D.K. were; Hansen, Donelson, and Moulton. Next honors came at Student Election time, when Sig Eps swept all class offices. Thanks to Karolee Wybenga we had a Sweetheart at our dance; she climaxed the evening by a dance with Terry Olsen (the Bunny Hop). We also had a Sig. Ep Sing; somebody won. Socially, we had a good round on the exchange party circuit. Hansen fiddled around while the Rome Hotel burned at our annual Christmas get-together, while Bruce, at the Sheraton, carried on the tradition of the Munich bombing. New Year's Eve we all watched the ball fall at Times Square, Thanks Ken. Meanwhile back at O.U., the posters still met with great disapproval by the higher echelon, but the illustrious humor-twins carried on anyway. The Tenth Anniversary Banquet was nice. Terry Olsen was finally elected King Satan. It was better than the average type year?

This year Tau Kappa Epsilon's Omaha University chapter joined other Teke Chapters around the world commemorating the 63rd Anniversary of the founding of our fraternity. The celebration was historic, since it was just 63 years to the day when the first Teke chapter was formed, on Tuesday, January 10, 1898. At home, Epsilon-Epsilon Chapter and its members fought beautiful fall weather, vacation fever, and never-ending rush parties; finally conceding to books, lectures, and at times study. On November 24, Kay Erwin was honored as Teke's 1961 Sweetheart at our annual Red Carnation Formal. During Christmas Vacation, Teke's helped Santa by delivering presents and holiday spirit to kids at the Council Bluffs Christian Home. Then FINALS. Most of us made it. Now saying "So Long" to the five graduating seniors, and wishing each good luck.

the university seeks to administer to the whole individual, and through its religious organizations encourages each person to seek his own spiritual relationship.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

The new chapel in the Student Center was almost omitted when building plans were first discussed. Many felt OU being a municipal university, no religious attachment should exist. The original plans for the chapel set it up to be used for student weddings. Plans for other areas in the Center expanded, and the chapel area was reduced to a seating capacity of 25.

The chapel was completed in December except for a stained glass window and altar which should be installed in the near future. The chapel is used by students during the day for meditation and prayer.

Making use of the new chapel are the many religious organizations on campus that seek to develop among their members greater knowledge and understanding of their respective churches.

Through a well-recognized curriculum of courses, the College of Liberal Arts seeks to educate the whole man.

Courses in this College give the student a sound foundation in basic skills and offer an opportunity to study introductory courses in many specialized fields. The courses are divided into three divisions — which cover the range of man's activities in his search for the meaning of life and the facts of existence.

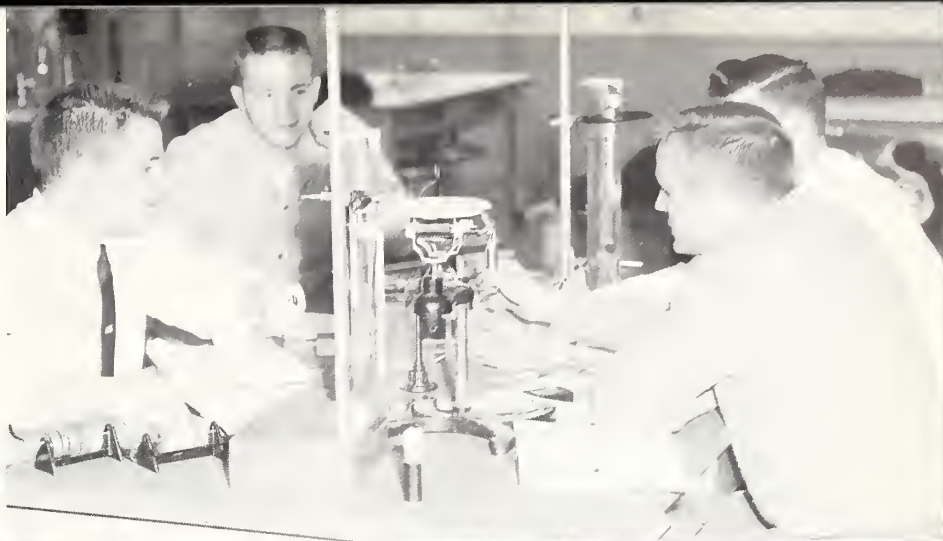

Composed of 15 departments, this College has programs leading to the degrees Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Fine Arts, with majors in arts, chemistry, economics, English, foreign languages, biology, geography, and geology, physics, history, mathematics, music, political science, philosophy, sociology, and speech. Two year associate titles are also awarded.

Senóritas and senórs further their interest in Spanish through the Spanish Club, sponsored by Dr. Christopher Espinosa. Members enjoy speaking Spanish, playing Spanish games, doing Spanish dances, and singing Spanish songs.

Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternity, is sponsored by Dr. Aldrich Paul. The members sponsor the "Speakeasies" and aid in running the fall "Kick Off" debate tournament.

Recently re-organized is Der Deutsche Verein, or for non-members, the German Club. Plans are being made to acquaint the members with the customs, literature and traditions of the language.

For ninety-three years, Kilpatrick's has been serving the people of Omaha as one of its oldest and most trusted friends. We are proud to have been a part of this growing, prosperous community and we look forward to the years to come with renewed hope that with you, the future leaders of our community and country, the coming years will be more fruitful and rewarding than ever before. At Kilpatrick's, it has been our highest endeavor to bring to our customers the very latest in quality merchandise at the most reasonable prices possible. For ninety-two years this has been our goal . . . and it shall remain our constant thought thru the next ninety-two years. That's why we say . . . at Kilpatrick's you can count on "Good Merchandise and the Truth About It."

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES

Success story

AT MUTUAL OF OMAHA and United of Omaha, success is an everyday experience. Mutual's name identifies the company everywhere as the largest exclusive health and accident insurance company in the world. It has won this stature by paying more than a billion dollars in benefits during its first fifty years. United also holds national respect as one of America's most progressive life insurance companies. During its short and dynamic history, United has distinguished itself as the only firm in the United States to reach the one billion dollar insurance-in-force mark in its first 27 years. Such success reflects more than outstanding business progress on a company level — just as clearly, it indicates the individual success of our employees. In an atmosphere of growth, unlimited opportunity for individual achievement and advancement is a part of every job. For many years, the University of Omaha has given us men and women of quality who have the ability to seize the opportunity offered by success. Two such men are pictured on this page. For O. U. graduate Murray Longworth, on the left, ability and opportunity, along with the determination to use both, have brought him to the presidency of United of Omaha. "Pat" Rose, on the right, is a 1959 O. U. grad. He's just beginning his insurance career as an underwriter. Seeing Murray Longworth's career, he knows we make it a point to keep the door to opportunity open wide. From the very beginning, he was placed in a job that challenges his personality and education. When jobs of higher responsibility and reward are to be filled, he's secure knowing that it's our policy to promote from within whenever possible. If you're interested in a career where success is a rule of thumb and where opportunity is an invisible paycheck, we'd be happy to discuss it with you. Stop by our Personnel Department, open weekdays from 8:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. No appointment is necessary.

To those contemplating presenting the gift of a lifetime to someone who will enrich their lives for a lifetime, two items should be of paramount importance . . . the quality of the gift and the integrity of the dealer from whom it is purchased.

The proud title, "registered jeweler" is your assurance of the highest quality and unquestioned integrity. Our firm has earned that proud title by conforming to these two supremely important qualifications. Your assurance of excellence is complete.
